HORSES AND HORSEMEN

Robert Bradley's Stable Prominent at Washington.

FURNISHES GOOD WINNERS

Virginia Bred Ones Capture Many Races—Heatherbloom and Rifle, Famous Jumpers.

Robert Bradley has in his string at Washington twenty-three horses, bred by himself at Greenway Farm, of which twenty-two are by Aloha, and the other one is Boney Boy, son of Blitzen, "the Iron Horse." According to Trainer Frank Reitor, the star of the lot is Robert Waddill II, a full brother to Robert Waddill, winner of the American Derby a few years back, but by most others that honor is likely to be accorded Peter Paul, also a son of Aloha, and one of the greatest campaigning two-year-olds of last season. The real wonder of the stable, however, seems to be Boney Boy, as the chestnut gelding is now eight years, and has been raced season after season since a two-year-old, first on the flat, where he defeated at one time or another such horses as the famous mare Imp and others, and now he is earning winning brackets over the jumps. With Peter Paul, Mr. Bradley is looking forward to duplicating the victory of Robert Waddill in the merican Derby, in addition to annexing first money in other important events as well.

An exchange says Robert Bradley, surnamed "Virginia" by his friends, for years the butt and joke of turfmen as a breeder of race horses, had sweet revenge for all this chaffing during an afternoon recently. With three young horses—Peter Paul, General Stewart and Allen Avon—which first saw the light of day on his farm on the other side of the Potomac River, he won as many races at the Benning track and incidentally carried off the racing honors for the day. All of Bradley's winners were sired by Aloha, a son of the English stallion St. Mungo, he by Blair Athol. This Aloha had an eventful career. When in his prime John J. McCafferty gave $20,000 for him and brought him East. At that period of his career he was a high-class horse. He won a number of races on the metropolitan tracks, and then when a period of financial stress came knocking at McCafferty's door he was sold to "Snapper" Garrison. The latter resold him to the late Frank Beard, the multimillionaire of Brooklyn. Aloha had been in Beard's stable only a short while when Bradley was asked to treat several of the thoroughbreds. During his visit Beard presented Aloha to Bradley. Beard said he was tired of the stallion and did not want him around.

Virginia bred horses have been strongly in evidence at the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club, now in progress at Benning. This applies especially to the stable of Robert Bradley, who has won a number of races with products of the Greenway Farm, as this breeding establishment has furnished winners in Peter Paul, General Stewart, Allen Avon and the perennial performer, Boney Boy. The stable of John D. Hooe furnished a winner of several steeplechase events in Gum Honey, brown gelding, 5, by Imp, Flatlands, dam Jacqueline, by Imp. The Jacobite, and in this same division a winner turned up in J. E. Lane's good ward to duplicating the victory of Robert Waddill in the merican Derby, in addition to annexing first money in other important events as well.

gelding Imperialist, 7, by Norwood, dam Geminia, by Heimdal.

Little Woods, the bay colt, 2, by Flambeau, dam Ragner, by Volturino, who won at Washington on the 20th March Mr. W. L. Maughan, was purchased from the big, good-natured and kindly William Garth, of Charlottesville, Va., who got him as a gift horse. The colt was originally purchased by Samuel Ross, owner of the Columbia stable, and prominent in the councils of the Washington Jockey Club, who purchased the son of Flambeau last summer in New York for $100 at the sale of the Pequet yearlings. Mr. Ross donated Little Woods to Garth in recompense for a similar donation the year before, which had panned out disappointingly.

Peter Paul, brown gelding, 3, by Aloha, dam Emblence, by Imp, Kyrie Daily, is entered in the Harlem National Handicap, to be run at Chicago on June 30th, and the weight assigned him is 90 pounds. The value of this important event is $15,000, and the distance is one and three-sixteenths miles. There are 100 nominations. McChesney carries top weight, 129 pounds. Gold Hecla comes next, with 125 pounds, while Dick Koles, holder of the world's record for a mile, made last season, when three years old, is in at 123 pounds.

The big spring sale of the Smyth Brothers-McClellan Live Stock Company will be held at the Union Stock Yards, Norfolk, Va., on Wednesday and Thursday, April 21st and 22nd. This is an important event and buyers are likely to gather from various sections in search of the grand lot of horses at this auction sale. The offerings will include general purpose, business, draft, saddlers, fine drivers and roadsters; also a select lot of light harness horses, including matched pairs, fast roadsters and speedy trotters and pacers. Among the latter will be green horses and those with records roughly to race and fit for the speedway.

Among Virginia bred horses that have won recently on California tracks, Blue Miracle, bay colt, 4, by Miracle, dam Anna Blue, by Hindoo, Gelsa Girl, bay filly, 4, by Aurus, dam Emma A., by Leshon, and Callant, gray gelding, 7, by Flatlands, dam Callipolis, by Burnham. Blue Miracle was bred by Robert Bradley; Gelsa Girl by J. S. Stewart, and Callant by J. H. McCafferty. Callant is owned by C. D. Hutzler, of this city, for whom he has proven a consistent winner for a couple of seasons or more.

John D. Hooe of Warrenton, Va., patron of cross-country sport and owner for years past of steeplechases, is the donor of three mugs presented to the owner, rider and trainer of the inaugural steeplechase at Washington. It was intended to keep the fact a secret, but in view of the fact that the race was won by Mr. Hooe's horse Gum Honey, son of Flatlands and Jacqueline, a friend considered it too good to keep.

Frank Farrell's chestnut colt Andrew Mack, 4, by Imp, Charaxus, dam Generaline, by Eolus, got out of the maiden class at Washington the first time he started, and then followed up the performance by winning again a couple of days later. This colt was bred in the Ellerslie Stud, and like all of his dam's produce, is a large, handsome fellow, that realized a nice sum at auction as a yearling.

E. S. Engleking's good gray mare Grandma, thoroughbred daughter of Imp, Woodlands and Pomona, by Ten Broeck, dropped on March 26th a fine brown filly, by Aloha, which died at two days old. The mare was sent to Robert Bradley's farm at Wilkes, where she was bred back to Aloha. The loss of this filly is strongly felt, as she was well thought of, as evidenced by a refusal of an offer of $300.

Sales of both horses and mules have been active at the big stable of Sidney P. Clay, recently opened up at No. 1917 East Franklin Street. To a local firm of excavators some twenty head of fine, large mules were sold, and several carloads were shipped South. Mr. Clay has now in stock a lot of fine mules of all sizes, and is constantly receiving supplies from the large Western markets.

Joseph Lassiter, of the Richmond Bazaar, whose semi-weekly auction sales are features of the horse market here, will dispose of several hundred head of horses and mules on Wednesday next. They are consigned by prominent shippers, and the offerings will include various grades of horses, among them some fine drivers and speedy trotters and pacers.

The Ellerslie-bred filly Nixalus, 4, by Imp, Charaxus, dam Nola, by Eolus, won at Memphis recently at a mile, doing the distance in 1:44, and finishing in front of Henry Bert, Hargis and six others.

Miss Penn, 2:19 1-4, the bay mare by William Penn, 2:27 1-4, who trotted to her record last fall at Pottstown, Pa., will be raced again this season by her owner, J. L. Justice, of Parkley, Va.

ALL GETTING INTERESTED

Mayorality Guessing Contest Attracting Widespread Attention.

Now that the contest for the mayorality has narrowed down to two candidates, those opponents in former years, Mayor Taylor and City Accountant McCarthy, The Times-Dispatch's guessing contest increases greatly in interest, though possibly becoming less difficult and perplexing to the contestants. Old figures will guide to some extent, but many circumstances enter into this fight which were never present before, and the victory must be to the best guesser, or those whom the gods of chance favor.

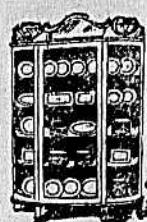

The offer of The Times-Dispatch is most attractive and liberal. Nothing can be

Hawkins Has a Job.

Cy Hawkins, the familiar Roub, who has been making merry in Richmond for a few days, has accepted a position with the Straus-Gunst Company, and will cover the local and contiguous territory.

Upper Hanover.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HYLAS, VA., April 15.—There will be an all-day service at Berea Church next Sunday. Some of the members met on last Saturday and included the Berea Cemetery with a handsome and substantial wire fence.
Miss Lizzie Norvell, teacher of School No. 16, near Hylas, has finished her session, and is now visiting in Richmond. Miss Norvell broke the record. She walked a mile and a half to school and did not miss a day from start to finish (six months), and made a good average, too. She won many friends in this vicinity by her sunny disposition.
Miss Nellie Coates, of Rockville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. V. E. Pickles, of Richmond.
Mr. J. M. Whitshire has just returned from a trip to Louisiana.

King-Holmes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., April 14.—A quiet home wedding took place here Friday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Greenman, when their daughter, Mrs. Estelle Holmes, was married to Dr. D. J. King, of this city.
Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. King, Mrs. Leverett, Mrs. Haxall and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Johnson, of this city. Refreshments were served. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. King left on the fast train for Jonesville, Wis., the former home of the bride. The couple will spend several weeks in Wisconsin and Canada.

National Fox Hunters.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., April 14.—Mr. William Wade, of Pittsburg, Pa., the president of the National Fox Hunting Association, with his son, is here on a visit to Mr. W. Overby, who is a director of this association. Mr. Overby, who is a great lover of the chase and keeps a fine pack of dogs, is trying to induce President Wade to have the next meeting of the club held in this section, as it is particularly adapted to the sport of fox hunting.
Mr. R. G. Sneed, of Vance county, N. C., who is also a great fox hunter, is here with Mr. Wade as Mr. Overby's guest.

WASTING LIVES

Nothing wastes a woman's strength and vitality like suffering female troubles. Profuse menstruation wastes the life blood. Suppression of the function poisons it. Bearing down pains wreck the nervous system. Troubles of motherhood are often fatal.

A woman's life is beset with dangers. There are a thousand ways in which her health may be destroyed, but Wine of Cardui is an absolute cure for these ailments. It is the best menstrual regulator known to the science of medicine. It relieves the suffering of bearing down pains, drives out leucorrhoea and gives pure blood and strong nerves to women whose bodies have been enervated and tortured by hidden sickness.

WINE OF CARDUI

And, hundreds of thousands of invalids have been cured of these troubles in the privacy of their own homes. Yes, they have cured themselves with Wine of Cardui. This treatment is no experiment. Cures of 1,500,000 women put the Wine of Cardui treatment far beyond the experimental stage.

Is your wife wasting her life away suffering? You can take her a bottle of this medicine and she can cure herself right in her own home.

Will you secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today, and give your wife the benefit of this cure that hundreds of thousands of other men's wives rejoice in?
